Multivariate Functions

To visualize a function of several variables, we can use a surface plot (first figure), a set of traces (second plot) and/or level curves (third plot). Consider the function $z = \sin(x^2 + y - 3)$. 